- The game is too expensive. I cringe when I see that a certain hat costs 2 million Robux. Robux are the currency used in Roblox, and I have no idea where to get them in game. But it's pretty obvious that you have to pay real money for them or use your parents' credit card to access the store. And if you do use your parents' credit card, then they'll try to find out why you were so interested in a child's game and they will most certainly look at the Roblox website or app, which will reveal that there are so many games with suggestive themes/language that it will make your eyes bleed (and your mom/dad's too).

I am not a Minecraft addict, but I do enjoy playing that game. However, that is only because my friends and I play it together. Not because of the millions of dollars or diamonds you can get for free on Roblox. People are obsessed with Roblox; my Facebook account was filled with friends who played Minecraft as if they were addicted to crack. They would constantly post pictures about their new lifesize cardboard builds they worked on at home; taking ages-long breaks between each video to watch more videos of minecraft. We've all had friends who were that addicted to Roblox in our time, but I have never met one like Sinead who was "deeply miserable" because she was deprived of playing it. That was always the case whenever anyone mentioned it, I'm sure; parents would frequently ask me if and how I managed to get my grades, and teachers would always ask me if we had any homework. Sometimes they'd even assign us essays to write about our time on Roblox; even though a few months before everyone stopped doing them unless they were mandatory.

I was also kind of surprised at how far back the game went in time; it was created back in 2021, which I know is quite a long time ago. It's kind of scary how quickly things have changed since then. But though I am young, I thought that Minecraft was always meant for little kids; unlike Roblox, it wasn't purchased by me or my parents, and there were no advertisements present. So my opinion on both games is that they are really great for little kids because they're safe and easy to use. For adults, they are not worth the time. But from what I have heard, and from my own experiences, Roblox is a game that all kindergartners should be playing. It's definitely not recommended for adults or even teenagers.
