ROBLOX has also been criticised for lacking any kind of quality assurance for its games. There have been many issues with the quality of some games and many users have complained that their game descriptions are not accurate. The site is also frustratingly inconsistent in the manner it deals with things like this, often banning users who complain about bugs and glitches within their games but not actually banning anyone who commits an illegal act, such as copying someone else's game and selling it without permission.

In December 2021, a lawsuit was filed against Roblox for copyright infringement, in which ROBLOX is accused of copying the entire codebase and game assets of "Infinity: The Quest to the End of the Universe". A cease and desist was also filed against ROBLOX in September 2021 by a head developer from the website Games Done Quick for using their copyrighted content without permission.

Some of the games on ROBLOX display ads on the top of their players' screen during gameplay. The player is able to skip these ads after 5 seconds, but if they do not and instead wait to see them out, then they will receive a small amount of ROBUX. In addition, members receive 30% extra revenue from games with ads placed above them.

On September 8, 2021, ROBLOX released an update that added a "New Games" section to its website. This section is separated into sub-categories for ease-of-navigation and new content coming soon. This section also functions as a "curated library" with all games listed in a searchable manner (e.g., "roblox" will bring up any game about ROBLOX, but "roblox experiment" won't).

On July 3rd, 2021, ROBLOX announced that they were no longer allowing people to make custom models for their games. Instead, they would be allowing users to build blocky models that could not be edited at all. They stated that this would prevent the creation of custom models and save money by preventing expensive data transfers.[22] The change was made in order to clean up the game because custom models complicates the "Roblox experience" in some cases.

Some people also complain about the game being too confusing and requiring so much effort just to make 1 point or get Robux, even though it only takes about 3-6 hours of playing. They say that "Robloxian life" is actually a scam and they struggled to get it.

The Chat Room is an area where players can talk or text either with themselves or with other players. The chatroom is separated into different categories, depending on what players are doing. Normal chat rooms for most players will probably contain users asking different questions about the game as well as people chatting about their creations. Other chatrooms include a room where people can indicate whether they want someone to play their games or put them up for sale and a "Celebrity Chat" that allows known celebrities to visit and hang out in the chatroom.
